

The Inn & Spa at Intercourse Village

Toll-Free Phone: 800-664-0949 • innkeeper@inn-spa.com

This Bed and Breakfast Inn lies in a charming little village of over 250 years whose history is as unique as its name – Intercourse. Located in the middle of the beautiful and serene Amish countryside, the village is in one of the most visited areas of the United States, Lancaster County. Townsfolk and Amish mingle in this charming, small community where horses and buggies can be seen travelling down the main street. There are many local stores selling antiques, hand-crafted furniture and toys, quilts, leather goods, and locally produced foods.

The Inn itself is a beautiful home offering enchanting accommodation to travellers of discerning taste. Built to high specification in 1909, the house has been meticulously restored to its former glory by its current owner, E.H. Thomas.

Accommodations are offered in the main house with its two Victorian rooms and one grand suite, two parlors and ornate dining room where gourmet candlelit breakfasts are served. Or stay in one of the three rustic homestead buildings fashioned after an earlier period and time with exteriors emulating a barn and livery stable.

The property also boasts beautifully landscaped paths and gardens with a gazebo and water fountain – perfect for weddings and other special occasions and receptions.
